- Upakrama – Sankshepa.

72 Verses – 4 Topics

Verse 1 – 10
  Arjuna’s Saranagathi
    - Refine and make the mind mature.

Verse 11 – 38
  Karma Yoga

Verse 39 – 53
  Jnana Yoga
    - Atma Jnanam.

Verse 54 – 72
  Mukti lakshanam
    - Benefits of Wisdom.
    - Jeevan Mukti, Shanti, Trupti, Poornatvam.
Verse 1 to 72
Verse 1:

Sanjaya said: To him, who was thus overcome with pity and despondency, with eyes full of tears, and agitated, Madhusudana (the destroyer of Madhu, the demon) spoke these words.

- Sanjaya reports to the king.
- Krishna has decided to speak.

Verse 2:

The Blessed Lord said: Whence is this perilous condition come upon thee, this dejection, unlike of Aryan, heaven-excluding, disgraceful, O Arjuna?

- Lord Krishna probing into Arjunas mind.
Ananya – Arjuna highly evolved cultured man, Adheres to Dharma.

Why are you dejected, Disgraceful and driving yourself to hell by Pratyavaya Papam – Omission of duty.

Verse 3:

3 Responses possible

- Impulsive action.
- Emotionally overwhelmed.

- Inaction
- Weak minded person

- Thoughtful, deliberate, appropriate action, not influenced by intense emotion.

Yield not to impotence, O Partha! It does not befit thee. Cast off this mean weakness of heart! Stand up, O parantapa (scorcher of foes)!

• Destroyer of enemies – Parantapa may you not take to unmanliness, you are a great hero.

• Give up weak – mindedness, pick up arrow and fight, which is your Swadharma.
Verse 4 – 6:

Verse 4:

अर्जुनं उवाच।
कथं भीष्ममहं सद्ग्रोणं च मधुसूदनं।
इपुर्भिः प्रतियोत्स्यामि
पूजार्हावरिसूदनम्॥ २-४॥

Arjuna said: How, O Madhusudana, shall I, in battle, fight with arrows against Bhismma and Drona, who are fit to be worshipped, O destroyer of enemies!

Arjuna declines to fight:

- Lord wounded Arjuna’s ego, hoping shock treatment will make his mind right.
- How to fight with Bhishma (Grand father) and Drona (Guru) who are worthy to be worshipped.
Verse 5:

Better indeed in this world, is to eat even the bread of beggary than to slay the most noble of teachers. But, if I kill them, all my enjoyments of wealth and desires, even in this world, will be stained with blood.

Height of delusion:

- Arjuna sees Dharma as Adharmo.
- Bhishma and Drona are Adharmic, committed papams.
- Arjuna has to eliminate them to protect Dharma.
- Grahastha can’t live on Alms, only Brahmacari, Vanaprasta, Sanyasi can live on Biksha.
- By killing Grandfather and Guru, blood will be stained.

Verse 6:

I can scarcely say which will be better; that we should conquer them or that they should conquer us. Even the sons of Dhrtarastra, after slaying whom, we do not wish to live, stand facing us.
• Arjuna says that after killing kith and kin, he will not be able to enjoy his victory.
• Arjuna accepts his ignorance.
• Accepting ones ignorance is the most difficult job for a person with ego.
• He is helpless and coming to 4th stage of surrender.

Verse 7:

My heart is overpowered by the taint of pity; my mind is confused as to duty. I ask Thee. Tell me decisively what is good for me. I am Thy disciple. Instruct me, I have taken refuge in Thee. [Chapter 2 – Verse 7]

• Arjuna becomes Sishya.
• My discriminative power and intellect are lost.
• Rule: Unless a person says – I am your disciple, the Guru is not supposed to teach.
• Asking must be with humility not arrogance.
• Sishya is one who has emptied his mind of all preconceived ideas and notions and approaches Guru with open mind.
Verse 8:

I do not see that it would remove this sorrow that burns up my senses, even if I should attain prosperous and unrivalled dominion on earth, or even lordship over the gods.

- Sorrow dries up and burns up all sense organs.
- Even if I fight and win Kingdom, will not enjoy as my emotional pain will be there.
- Arjuna falls at the feet of the Lord.

Verse 9:

Sanjaya said: Having spoken thus to Hrsikesa, Gudakesa, the destroyer of foes, said to Govinda: “I will not fight” and became silent.
Verse 10:

To him, who was despondent in the midst of the two armies, Hrsikesa as if smiling, O Bharata, spoke these words. [Chapter 2 – Verse 10]

- Lord Krishna decides to give Gita Sashtram as a remedy for Arjunas sorrow.

Verse 11:

The Blessed Lord said: You have grieved for those that should not be grieved for; yet, you speak words of wisdom. The wise grieve neither for the living nor for the dead. [Chapter 2 – Verse 11]

- Gita teaching beings in this verse.
- Krishna indicates the ultimate remedy for all human emotional pains of Samsara is Atma Jnanam.
• Only Jnani can avoid sorrow and grief in life.

Pandita Na Anusochanti:

• Wise do not grieve over the past dead ones or present living ones or the dying ones in future.
• Wise divide all situations into 2 categories.

Situations

Choiceless
- No solution
- Strengthen the mind to withstand the situation.
- Perform action inwards.

Choicefull
- Solution exists.
- Perform action outwards.

• Grieving will not solve the situation in both cases.
• Stop crying and start working.
• Only self knowledge will solve the problem of Samsara.
• All others are first aid, temporary respite.
Verse 12:

It is not that at any time (in the past), indeed was I not, nor were you, nor these rulers of men. Nor verily, shall we ever cease to be hereafter.

3 Levels of Argument

1st Spiritual Angle
- Aadhyatmika Drishti
- Verses 12 – 30.
- Highest level
- Atma – Akarta, Abokta.
- Atma is unborn, does not die, changeless, unmanifest.

2nd Ethical, Moral Angle
- Dharmika Drishti
- Verse 31 – 33
- Violence not Adharmic, as last resort ok.
- Kshatriya duty to protect Dharma, will incur sin if Arjuna withdraws.

3rd Worldly Angle
- Laukika Drishti
- Verse 34 – 38
- Will loose name and fame.

Jeevatma Svarupam:
- Every individual composite entity consisting of 2 portions Atma and Anatma.
Jeevatma - Individual

Atma
- Spiritual principle
- Invisible
- Sukshmam
- Electricity, invisible energy.
- Makes body alive and transacting.
- Jnana Tatvam, Vigjnana Tatvam, Chaitanya Tatvam.
- Always existent, eternal.
- Imperishable.

Anatma
- Body – mind complex
- Visible
- Sthula
- Bulb and filament
- Appears and disappears.
- Perishable
- Body medium may change.

What is consciousness?

- Not part, properly product, of the body.
- Not limited by boundaries of body
- Not available for transaction without a medium.

- Independent entity
- Pervades and enlivens body, survives even after disintegration of the body.
Verse 13:

Just as in this body the embodied (soul) passes into childhood, youth and old age, so also does he pass into another body; the firm man does not grieve at it.

- We use I to refer to the body even though body changes from childhood, youth, adult, old age.
- Body changes but I the conscious principle does not change.
- Consciousness does not die when the body disintegrates.

3 Mediums for Consciousness

- Waking
  - Function through gross body, gross world.
- Dream
  - Medium changes
  - Subtle Dream body.
- Sleep
  - Medium changes
  - Karana Shariram experienced.
- Without changes
  - Pure Chaitanyam
  - Changeless
  - Bodyless

• Oh Arjuna! You will continue to exist, so do not grieve with regard to death and rebirth.
• Wise person who understands Atma does not get deluded.
Verse 14 & 15 :

- Feelings pertain to body.

Verse 14 :

The contacts of senses with objects, O son of Kunti, which cause heat and cold, pleasure and pain, have a beginning and an end; they are impermanent. Endure them bravely, O descendant of Bharata.

Lord Krishna changes the topic briefly and talks about Titiksha.
- Physical and emotional immunity or resistance to confront varieties of situations in life to lead a healthy life.
- Just as you cannot avoid weather conditions, you cannot change or control external situation completely.
- I build up my emotional condition to remain peaceful and equanimous to face unfavourable condition, called endurance, forbearance, Titiksha.
- Any learning requires balanced mind.
- All experiences subject to arrival and departure.
- Favourable conditions give pleasure when they arrive and pain when they go.
• Situations are uncontrollable, unpredictable, unsustainable.
• Instead of wasting our time to change the situation, we should change our attitude.
• Accepting external facts, and learn to adjust our attitude is the solution for successful living.

Verse 15:

यं हि न व्यथयत्त्येते पुरुष धीरे सोडमृत्त्वाय कल्यते || २-१५ ||

That firm man whom surely these afflict not, O Chief among men, to whom pleasure and pain are the same, is fit for realising the immortality of the Self.

2 types of endurance

Helpless Endurance

- Creates anger, frustration.
- Unhealthy reaction.
- Can’t Cure anyone.

Healthy Endurance

- Titiksha
- Maintain reasonable balance of mind, equanimity.
- Endurance helps you find the right solution.
Only seekers with healthy endurance attain immortality.

How to acquire Titiksha, inner strength, inner resistance?

2 Sadhanas

- Saranagati
- Surrender to God
- Invoke Ishta Devata, Lord in your heart to give you strength.

Bakti

Sankalpa

- Auto Suggestion
- Every individual has infinite potential because our nature is essentially Brahman which is “Jagat Karanam”.
- I will be able to manage any situation.

Verse 16 – 20:

- The Atma Svarupa – Real and the unreal.

Verse 16:

नासतो विद्यते भावः
नाभावो विद्यते सतः ।
उभयोऽपि ह्यप्रोस्ततः
त्वनयोऽस्ततवदर्शिभि: ॥ २-१६ ॥

nāsatō vidyatē bhāvah
nābhāvō vidyatē sataḥ |
ubhayōrapi śrśto'ntah tvanayōstattvadarsibhiḥ ॥ २-१६ ॥

The unreal has no existence; there is no non-existence of the Real; the truth about both these has been seen by the knowers of the Truth (or the seers of the Essence).
• Atma is Sat Svarupa.
• Chandogya Upanishad – 6th Chapter.

• Spiritually enlightened people are the knowers of this reality.
• They clearly understand Satyam, Mithya, Atma, Anatma differences.
Verse 17:

Atma is immutable, indestructible, changeless.
If Atma is property of the body, when the body goes, Atma will go away.
Atma only manifests in the body like electricity manifests in the bulb and the bulb glows.
When the body or bulb is destroyed, Atma will continue in an unmanifest form like electricity because Atma is eternal.

Yena Idam Sarvam Tatham:
Consciousness pervades entire universe, bodies, animal – plants – human, and in between bodies also.

</table>
| - Original life principle.
- Tat Tvam Asi. | - Sat Chit Ananda Atma is present all over.
- Universe is the medium to recognise light, Chaitanyam of Atma. |

It is said that these bodies of the embodied self have an end. The self is eternal, indestructible, incomprehensible. Therefore, fight, O Bharata.

- Atma is the ultimate witness of everything.

Ime Deha Anta Vanta:

- All bodies, which serve as Medium of our transaction are perishable.
- They belong to the transactor.

Aprameyasya:

- Atma not object of experience.
- I am different from what I experience.
• Na iti, Na-iti... world negated.
• What cannot be negated is Aprameya.
• Not Blankness or emptiness.
• Seer, experiencer of Blankness is Atma, consciousness, subject, can’t be objectified.

Example:
• Eyes can’t see themselves.
• Camera can’t photograph itself.
• The consciousness principle experiencing the body, mind, and the world is Atma.

Verse 19:

He, who takes the self to be the slayer and he, who thinks he is slain; neither of them knows. He slays not, nor is he slain.

• Soul never kills or gets killed, Akarta, Abokta.
• Karma produces phalam, can’t be avoided, Karta becomes Bokta.
• Jeeva experiences what he deserves as Ahamkara.
• Karta bokta not aligned, terrible Karta and wonderful Bokta possible in span of several Janmas.
• Karma phalam is Adrishtam, invisible.
• Hence there is constant sense of insecurity, fear, concern, Anxiety which one cannot avoid.
• Atma alone transcends Karta and Bokta and one should claim that as ones Svarupam and Ahamkara as Vesham, Role play, Drama.
• Self ignorance covers our real nature and make unreal – real.
• Projection of Anatma and transfering reality of Atma to Anatma is job of Ajnanam – Avidya called sleep (Nidra) or at Macro level – Moola Avidya, Maya.
• Majority of humanity believe themselves as Ahamkara, Karta, Bokta and not aware of higher nature.

Verse 20:

व जायते भ्रियते वा कदाचिद्
नायं भूल्वा भविता वा न भूयः ।
अजो नित्यः शाश्वतोऽयं पुराणः
न हन्यते हन्यमाने शरीरे || २-२० ||

na jāyatē mriyatē vā kadācid
nāyaṃ bhūtvābhavitā vā na bhūyāḥ | ajō nityaḥ śāśvatō'yaṃ purāṇaḥ
na hanyatē hanyamānē śarīrē || 2-20 ||

He is not born, nor does He ever die; after having been, He again ceases not to be; unborn, eternal, changeless and ancient, He is not killed when the body is killed. [Chapter 2 – Verse 20]
• Metre changed, indicates an important message.
• Atma is Nirvikara.

Anatma – body has 6 modifications:

Atma
- Never Born, Ajaha.
- No Arrival, departure.
- Nitya – Deathless, eternal (Sasvatah).
- No growth – Puranah ever the same.
- No decay.
- Nirvikarah – Changeless, transcendental, not subject to time – Space co-ordinate.

Anatma
- Has 6 modifications.
- Birthday for body.
- Body can be killed.
- Atma looses its transacting medium like in sleep.
- Becomes non-transacting Atma, not non-existent Atma.
Jagrat
- With in time and space.
- I am witness, Atma.

Svapna
- New time and space, internal world.
- Day time in dream experienced when body is in night time.
- I am witness, Atma.

Sushupti
- That principle which continues to exist in sleep, witnessing the absence of time and space is called consciousness.

• The consciousness principle has witnessed the absence of time and space because after waking up we are able to say that during sleep we did not experience anything, there was total blankness, the witness of arrival and departure of time and space is an independent entity, beyond time and space.

• Mind requires acclimatisation, to comprehend absolute Atma which transcends time and space.

Verse 21:

वेदाविनाशिनं नित्यं य एनमजजमव्ययम ||
कथं स पुरुषः पार्थं कं घातयति हन्ति कम् || २-२१ ||

vēdāvināśinam nityam
ya ēnam ajam avyayam |
katham sa puruṣah pārtha
dam ghātayati hanti kam || 2-21 ||

Whosoever knows Him to be indestructible, eternal, unborn and inexhaustible, how can that man slay O partha, or cause others to be slain?
Atma is Avyaya:

2 Sadhanas to Practice

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1st Stage</th>
<th>2nd Stage</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Atma – Anatma Viveka</td>
<td>Nididhyasanam – Meditate</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Differentiate:
- Body – Inert matter
- Atma – Chaitanyam.

Our misconception:
- Consciousness is temporary property of matter.
- I am born.
- Matter is eternal but subject to change from one form to another – manifest to unmanifest.

- I am eternal consciousness functioning temporarily through the physical body medium.
- Learn to claim I am Atma instead of saying I have an atma.
- Practice internalisation, Jnana Nishta Abhyasa of 7 features of Atma one by one.
- I am Nityah, Satyah, Sarvagatah, Aprameyah, Akarta, Abokta, Nirvikarah.
- Consciousness is eternal but not subject to change – “Avyayam”.
- Birthless, deathless, always exists.
- Kutasta Nityatvam, changelessly eternal (Uttama Purusha).
- Jnani is Akartha and Akarayita, Abokta, Abojayita.
- Atma is neither a killer nor an instigator.
Verse 22:

Just as a man casts off his worn out clothes and puts on new ones, so also the embodied Self casts off its worn out bodies and enters new ones.

- Practice Vedantic teaching and look at body with a different attitude.

Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Wave</th>
<th>Body</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>a) Rises from Ocean and resolves into ocean.</td>
<td>a) Rises from Panchabutas and resolves into Pancha Buta Samudrah.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>b) When the wave mingles with the ocean, a new wave is produced.</td>
<td>b) When the body mingles with the Panchabutas, another body comes and this process goes on eternally, fact of creation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>c) Old age and death, natural process of creation.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>d) Look at it objectively and appreciatem, not subjectively and get emotional. (body dying, I am eternal, Atma)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>e) Don’t have wrong identification and attachment.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
So Arjuna, why do you worry?
- Just as dress is changed, body will be changed.

Rebirth:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Clothes</th>
<th>Bodies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>- Worn for sometime and discarded.</td>
<td>- Individual wears a Panchabuta dress for a few years and discards.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>- Frequency depends on the individual.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- 3 Factors
  - Ahamkara
    - Sukshma, Karana Pair.
    - Invisible, inert
    - Finite entity.
    - Minds many.
    - Subtle form of matter, like energy.
    - Product of 5 elements (Tattva Bodha).
    - Borrows consciousness from Atma and becomes sentient and has capacity to sense the external world.
  - Consciousness
    - Survives death.
    - Not available for transaction because of loss of medium.
    - Sarvagataha, all pervading, need not travel.
    - Only one.

- Physical body
  - Remains here after death and disposed off.
  - Visible
  - Brain belongs to physical body, Golakam.
  - Mind lends consciousness to the body.

- Example:
  - Moon has unique capacity to reflect sunlight.
  - Mind with borrowed consciousness becomes ego, Ahamkara, the individuality.
Ahamkara, Ego – made of

- Matter
  - Inert
  - Subtle element
  - Invisible material principle.

- Borrows sentiency from Atma.
  - Has Reflected Consciousness.
  - Mind becomes alive, sentient with borrowed consciousness.

• Sentient mind a mixture of matter and borrowed consciousness, is called the ego or Ahamkara.

Bright Moon mixture of

- Matter moon.
  - Non-luminous.

- Borrowed light from the Sun.
  - Makes the moon Luminous.

• At the time of death, the mind – reflected Consciousness mixture called the ego leaves the body.

• Atma is present in dead body, but body cannot directly borrow consciousness from Atma.

• The body is capable of borrowing sentiency, life from mind only.

• As long as the mind is there in the body, body is sentient.
• Mind goes away and body becomes insentient.
• Mind + Reflected Consciousness – is repository of all Punyam + Papa.
• Punya Papa is not in body or Atma, it belongs to intermediary factor called Ahamkara.
• Depending on the quantity and quality of Punya Papa, the Ahamkara goes in search of another body. This cycle goes on and on.
• Here Krishna says there are:

2 things in the body

Atma
- Nontravelling one.
- Dehi No. 2
- Survives death
- Nityah, no Punya Papam.

Ego / Ahamkara
- Travelling on after death.
- Dehi No. 1
- Mind + borrowed consciousness.
- Survives death.
- Sraddham + Tarpanam for Dehi no. 1
Verse 23:

Weapons cleave It not, fire burns It not, water moistens It not, wind dries it not.

- Atma not affected by fire, water, wind or earth.
- All 4 factors are destructive forces.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Cyclone</th>
<th>Wind</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Floods</td>
<td>Water</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Earth quake</td>
<td>Earth</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Volcanic Eruptions</td>
<td>Fire</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

- Only Akasha does not cause any havoc.
- All 4 affect body, not Atma.
Verse 24:

This Self cannot be cut, nor burnt, nor moistened, nor dried up. It is eternal, all-pervading, stable, immovable and ancient.

1st Line:
- Repetition of last verse.

2nd line:
- Conclusion.

Acchedyah:
- Atma Dehi – No.2 can’t be cut, affected by earth element.

Adhaya:
- Not burnt by fire.

Akledayantya:
- Not wet by water.

Asoshya:
- Not dried by the wind.
Therefore Atma is:

1) Nitya:
   • Eternal, Changless.

2) Sarvagatah:
   • All pervading.

3) Sthanuhu:
   • Beyond time – No old age, disease death.

4) Achalah:
   • Not moving because it is Sarvagatah.
   • Body can move, space can’t move.
   • Should not say – after death, Atma has left the body.
   • Ego, the mind leaves the body and travels.

5) Sanatanah:
   • Absolute principle, beyond time and space.
   • Science has no access to Absolute reality.
   • Only Vedanta can guide us to Atma Chaitanyam.
Verse 25:

This (Self) is said to be unmanifest, unthinkable and unchangeable. Therefore, knowing This to be such, you should not grieve.

6) Avyaktaha:
   - Not available for sensory perception.
   - Free from properties of 5 sense organs – Shabda, Sparsha, Rupa, Rasa, Gandha.

7) Achintah:
   - Mind can’t conceive an infinite Atma.

8) Avikaryah:
   - Not subject to change, Nirvikara.
   - You are not killer, you are Atma behind your body, Bhishma is Atma behind his body.
   - Atma Jnanam is alone the ultimate remedy for grief.
Verse 26:

But, even if you think of him as being constantly born and constantly dying, even then, O mighty-armed, you should not grieve.

Hypothetical Situation:

- The fact is we are all Nityaha, eternal, Atma, we do not die. Hence no need to grieve.
- Assume that Atma is subject to birth and death. By grieving over a fact, fact cannot be changed, because what cannot be changed is a fact.

Verse 27:

Indeed, certain is death for the born, and certain is birth for the dead; therefore, over the inevitable, you should not grieve.

- Suppose birth is a fact, then death is also fact of creation.
- Mrityur – Druvah – Death is definite, unavoidable.
• Death will be followed by rebirth.
• Situation of Birth and death is called Apariharya Arthah – Choiceless, irremediable situation, which are unfavourable.
• If you cannot change the situation, change mind and attitude, no not accept blindly with resentment.
• Do not grieve over choiceless situations, try to change the attitude and fight.

Verse 28:

Verse 28: Beings were unmanifest in the beginning, and unmanifest again in their end, seem to be manifest in the middle, O Bharata. What then, is there to grieve about?

Physical Body

Unmanifest in the beginning

Manifest in between

Unmanifest in the end

When 5 elements enter into a combination, physical eye can perceive birth.
• We cannot talk about creation or destruction, because nothing can be created or destroyed.

• There is Nama, Rupa, Avastha Bheda.

• Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<th>Desk</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Ice</td>
<td>Water, Vapour</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

• Birth is modification of Pancha Butas.

• We are attached to a particular form and our mind is clouded temporarily.

• We were in existence in an invisible form.

• Dot like embryo in the womb has features of a person in Avyaktah form, subtle, potential form and again becomes a Avayaktam.

• Universe and individual Shariram goes through cycle.

• Potential – expansion – creation – contraction form destruction.

• Realize this inevitable fact and stop crying.
Verse 29:

One sees This as a wonder; another speaks of This as a wonder; another hears of This as a wonder; yet, having heard, none understands This at all!

Glory of Atma Jnanam:

- Atma is unknowable, incomprehensible, but not non-existent entity.
- A knower knows the Atma, without making the Atma as known object.
- Some wise seekers know the unknowable.
- Knowing the unknowable is a great wonder, comprehending the incomprehensible.
- 5 conditions for a thing to be described:
  - Jati
  - Guna
  - Kriya
  - Sambandhi
  - Rudhi
- Words can’t describe Atma.
Verse 30:

This – the Indweller in the body of everyone is ever indestructible, O Bharata; and, therefore, you should not grieve for any creature.

Conclusion: Atma Jnanam

- Jeevatma is Dehi, indweller, ever indestructible.
- For Deha, death is natural.
- So both Dehi and Deha do not deserve grief.
- If you are still grieving then it is delusion or Mohah.
- If you grieve, you cannot change the fact of life.
Verse 12
- Atma in Nityaha, always existent.

Verse 13
- Jiva takes another body effortlessly like moving from Childhood to youth, old age.

Verse 14
- Feelings of pleasure + pain impermanent.
- Bear them, patiently.

Verse 15
- Be balanced in pain and pleasure.

Verse 16
- Real – always exists, Satyam.
- Unreal – has no existence, Mithya.

Verse 17
- Atma manifests in the body and continues in Unmanifest form.
- Atma is indestructible, changeless, eternal.

Verse 18
- Atma is witness of every thing but never an object.
- Aprameyam.
- body has an end.

Verse 19
- Atma is Akarta, Abokta, never slayer, slayed.

Verse 20
- Atma is never born or dies.
- Unborn, eternal, constant ancient.

Verse 21
- One should know I am Atma not I have Atma, indestructible, without birth, immutable.
Atma Jnanam

Verse 22
- Body put on and off like dress by Atma.

Verse 23
Atma not: by
- Cut - Weapon
- Burnt - Fire
- Wet - Water
- Dry - Wind

Verse 24
- Atma is changeless, all pervading, unmoving, immovable, eternal.

Verse 25
Atma is:
- Unmanifest
- Unthinkable
- Unchangeable.

Verse 26
- Don’t grieve over a fact even if you think you Atma is born and dies.

Verse 27
- Birth + Death inevitable fact.
- Why grieve?

Verse 28
- Beings unmanifest in beginning and end, manifest in middle.
- Why grieve?

Verse 29
- Atma seen, heard, spoken, as a wonder.
- None understand it.

Verse 30
- Atma, indweller of the body is indestructible.
- Why grieve?
Ethical – Moral Angle – Dharmic Angle:
Second set of Arguments: Verse 31 – 33:
Verse 31:

Further, looking at thy own duty, thou ought not to waver, for there is nothing higher for a ksatriya than a righteous war.

- Duty of Kshatriya is to fight a righteous war.

Panchamahā Vritams (vows)

Ahimsa Satyam Astheyam Brahmacharyam Aparigraha

Arjunas confusion – What is Dharma?

- By killing I will get papam.
- By not killing
  - Will loose kingdom.
  - Will follow Ahimsa, get Punyam.
Ahimsa is not absolute value.
It is relative value. When it is necessary for Kshatriya to kill, it is considered as his duty to protect law and order in the society and fight a war.

Verse 32:

Happy indeed are the ksatriyas, O Partha, who are called to fight in such a battle that comes of itself as an open door to heaven.

A righteous war is a gateway to Veera Swarga. Only fortunate Kshatriya will get such a rare opportunity, hence Arjuna should fight.

Verse 33:

But, if you will not fight this righteous war, then having abandoned your own duty and fame, you shall incur sin.

If you don’t fight you will be committing omission Papam, Pratyavaya Papam. The punishment for this Papam is hell. You will also be giving up your duty.
Third level of Argument: Laukika Verses (Verse 34 – 37)

Verse 34:

People too will recount your everlasting dishonour; and to one who has been honoured, dishonour is more than death.

- Arjuna’s motive of compassion and reverence for Guru will be misunderstood by others.
- Rumours will spread that Arjuna ran away from the war (Coward). Will bring Akirthi – ill fame and dishonour to Arjuna.
- Apamanam will be intense and unbearable.
- Fame is difficult to preserve.
- Ill fame, dishonour is worse than death.
Verse 35:

The great battalion commanders will think that you have withdrawn from the battle through fear; and you will be looked down upon by those who had thought much of you and your heroism in the past.

- Great warriors like Bhishma and Drona will think that Arjuna ran away from battle field out of fear.

Verse 36:

And many unspeakable words will you enemies speak cavilling about your powers. What can be more painful than this?

- Enemies will speak many abusive words about Arjuna.
Verse 37:

Slain, you will obtain heaven; victorious, you will enjoy the earth; therefore, stand up, O son of Kunti, resolved to fight.

- 3 angles of Arguments given by Lord Krishna.
- As Akarta Atma, Arjuna will not be affected by the fruit of action.
- If Arjuna fights and looses, will get Swargam for Dharmic war.
- If Arjuna wins the war, gets the legitimate share of the kingdom.
- So Krishna asks Arjuna to resolve to fight.

Verse 38:

Having made pleasure and pain, gain and loss, victory and defeat the same, engage in battle for the sake of battle; thus, you shall not incur sin.
Karma Yoga:

- We all are forced to do action throughout our life by Prakrti.
- What type of action we should undertake?
- As per Varna – Ashrama.

What is the fundamental principle of Karma Yoga?

- Samatvam – maintaining a balanced, poised, calm mind.

Why we need Balanced mind?

a) To avoid impulsive reactions in life.
   - Impulsive action is mechanical and comes without control test – right, wrong, goal, bad, proper, improper.

b) Quality check only possible from balanced mind.
   - Every experience disturbs one's mind.
   - Keep mind balanced in favourable or adverse condition, in gain, loss, victory, defeat.
Verse 39 - 41:

• How to convert Karma to Karma Yoga?

Verse 39:

This verse indicates change of topic from Jnana Yoga (Sankhya) to Karma Yoga.

All Human problems are due to self ignorance.

Karma Yoga, is preparation for Jnana Yoga.

Sadhana, Chatushtaya Sampatti.

Karma Yoga + Jnana Yoga treatment leads to Moksha, spiritual health.

Study + Karma Yoga – Life style important.

We do not do action for happiness and security but with happiness, with security.

What has been taught so far is Sankhya (Jnana Yoga).

Now the Lord says listen to Karma Yoga (Yoga here).
Verse 40:

In this, there is no loss of effort, nor is there any harm (production of contrary results). Even a little of this knowledge, even a little practice of this yoga, protects one from the great fear.

Karma Yoga:

Consists of 2 parts

Karma

Proper action

Yoga

Proper attitude (Bavana)
Definition of Karma Yoga:

- Proper action and attitude towards action and its result.
- What is proper action?

Gita – 17th Chapter:

- Satvic
  - Increase
  - Has more number of beneficiaries.
  - Non-selfish
  - Benefits society, gives fulfillment.

- Rajasic
  - Reduce
  - Beneficiary only me.

- Tamasic
  - Avoid
  - Hurts and harms others.

- Karma Yogi is one who gradually increases Satvic Karma, reduces Rajasic and avoids Tamasic Karma.
Attitude of Karma Yogi

Ishvara Arpana Bavana

- Karma is offering to God, and action itself gives Joy.
- For Karmi – Non Karma Yogi, it is future Joy.
- Joy comes from the very action itself for Karma Yogi.
- Enjoyment in present itself.

Prasadha Bavana

- Karma done becomes karma Phalam is the law of the world.
- Karmas done undergo transformation in time according to the laws of the world.
- Lord is manifestation of the world, so the consequences are coming from Lord only.
- Every experience I undergo in my life is my own Karma Phalam given to me by God.
- Mind with Isvara Prasada Bavana enjoys peace and tranquillity.
Benefits of Karma Yoga

- Purification of mind and respect for values (Chitta Shuddhi)
- Divine Virtues (Samskara) increase.

• Practice of Karma Yoga protects one from fear.

Verse 41:

\[
\text{व्यवसायात्मिका बुद्धिः}
\text{एकेह कुरुनन्दनः}
\text{बहुशाख्या ह्यान्ताश्च}
\text{बुद्धयो'व्यवसायिनाम्} \quad 2-41

Here, O Joy of the Kurus (Kurunandana) there is but a single pointed determination; many-branched and endless are the thoughts of the irresolute.

• Vyavasayatmika Buddhi means unwavering, clear understanding about the goals of life and the means.
• Karma Yoga – to purify mind, get Jnanam, become free.
• Others are confused.
Verse 42, 43, 44:

Flowery speech is uttered by the unwise, taking pleasure in the eulogising words of Vedas, O Partha, saying, there is nothing else. [Chapter 2 – Verse 42]

Full of desires, having heaven as their goal, they utter flowery words, which promise new birth as the reward of their actions, and prescribe various specific actions for the attainment of pleasure and lordship. [Chapter 2 – Verse 43]

For, those who cling to joy and lordship, whose minds are drawn away by such teaching, are neither determinate and resolute nor are they fit for steady meditation and samadhi. [Chapter 2 – Verse 44]
• The way of worldly life.

- Makes me stronger self reliant.

• In 3 verses – 42, 43, 44, Lord Krishna condemns the people who are addicted to Kamya Karma.

• They are interested in material benefits and not self knowledge. This is Maya.
• Dependence on external factors leads to bondage. Dependence on myself is safe.
• Karmis are embodiment of infinite desires.

Verse 45 – 53 : Key to Yoga

Verse 45 :

The Vedas deal with the three attributes; be you above these three attributes (gunas), O Arjuna, free yourself from the pairs of opposites, and ever remain in the sattva (goodness), freed from all thoughts of acquisition and preservation, and be established in the Self. [Chapter 2 – Verse 45]
a) Trigunya Vishaya:
   - Materialistic goals – fall within 3 Gunas, Sattva, Rajas, Tamas.
   - 14 Lokas come under Kamya Karmas.
   - These are uncontrollable, unpredictable, unsustainable.
   - They tempt and addict you.

b) Turn away from kamya Karma to Vihita Karma – Pancha Mahayagya for self improvement and refinement.

c) Nirdvandvah:

Nirdvandah:
   - Means enjoying a mind which can accept plus and minus in a setup.

Niryogakshema Bava:
   - Yoga means acquisition, possession.
   - Kshema – means presentation, maintenance.
   - Once you are involved in acquiring and preserving, there is no time for spiritual study.
   - Karma Yogi reduces yoga – Kshema activities and tries to find security in himself.
   - Insecurity is a feeling in the mind, false sense born of ignorance.

Atmavan Bhava:
   - Be alert and Vigilant, establish more in yourself.
   - Dependence is pain, independence is Ananda.
Verse 46:

To the brahmana who has known the Self, all the Vedas are of as much use as is a reservoir of water in a place where there is flood everywhere. [Chapter 2 – Verse 46]

- What will happen when you follow Karma Yoga?
- One will develop interest in Jnana Yoga and discover perennial Atmananda.

Happiness

- Vishayananda
  - Joy from external pool of sense objects.

- Atmananda
  - Possible through Jnana Yoga.
  - Joy within oneself.

• To that Brahmana who has known the self, all Vedas (Karma Khanda) are like a reservoir of water in a place where there is flood.
Verse 47:

Thy right is to work only, but never to its fruits; let not the fruit of action be thy motive, nor let thy attachment be to inaction. [Chapter 2 – Verse 47]

a) Karmanya eva Adhikara Aste:

- Humanity has a freewill or choice in the type of action.
- As Karta have choice. (Not available for plants, animals).
- Once action is done, it becomes part of creation, it is subject to laws of creation, it is subject to laws of creation. (Known, unknown).
- Karma gets converted to Karma Phalam.
- We can contribute to our future not control over future.
- Our effort is one of the factors that influence the future.
b) Maaphaleshu Kadachana :
- Not controlling factor for the result of action. Future not dependent on my desire alone.
- As Boktha I have no choice of Phalam, may I not control karma Phalam.

c) Ma Karmaphala Hetur Bhouh :
- May I not take to inaction, without action I cannot grow in life.
- This is the principle of Karma Yoga.

Verse 48 :

Perform action O Dhananjaya, abandoning attachment, being steadfast in yoga, and balanced in success and failure. "Evenness of mind is called Yoga." [Chapter 2 – Verse 48]

What is purpose of Karma Yoga?
- To learn from life’s experiences.
- The more I depend on external factors, more problems I face.
- The more I depend on myself, the more freedom I enjoy.
- This lesson I can learn only if I have a non-reacting mind.
a) Samatvam:
   • Maintenance of non-reacting mind is the principle.

b) Yogasthah:
   • Means Samatvam, equipoise, mental balance.

c) Karmani Kuru:
   • Remaining in mental balance, do all your actions.

d) Sangam Tyaktva:
   • Giving up Anxiety and worry regarding future.

• Here Sangam refers to obsession with the future which must be given up because future is not under your control.
• Make best use of present and learn to enjoy Karma itself.
• Accept all types of result. God is never unjust.

What is Yoga?
• Samatvam yoga Uchyate.
• Evenness of mind is called yoga.
• Remaining balanced in success and failure is yoga.
Far lower than the yoga of wisdom is action, O Dhananjaya. Seek thou refuge in wisdom; wretched are they whose motive is the fruit. [Chapter 2 – Verse 49]

- Perform action by seeking refuge in wisdom.
- Nature of Karma Yoga over.
Verse 50 – 53: Karma Yoga – Phalam

Verse 50:

Endowed with the wisdom of evenness of mind, one casts off in this life both good deeds and evil deeds; therefore, devotee yourself to yoga. Skill in action is yoga. [Chapter 2 – Verse 50]

Benefits:

- a) Joy or happiness you get in performance of action itself. Happy in the present itself rather than when unpredictable results come.
- b) Derive full satisfaction as Karmas are done as dedication to God.
- c) Purification of mind because of Ishvara Sambandha, embodiment of all virtues.
- d) Prepares mind for Vedanta, starts strengthening the self through self knowledge which is the only way for Moksha.
- e) I can be strong only by discovering my higher nature. Karma Yogi becomes released from Papam and Punyam, a Mukta Purusha.

What is Yoga?

- Yoga Kamasu Kausalam.
- Skill in action is Yoga.
- To use action as a means of liberation from action, is Yoga.
Verse 51:

The wise, possessed of knowledge, having abandoned the fruits of their actions and freed from the fetters of birth, go to the state which is beyond all evil. [Chapter 2 – Verse 51]

- Karma Yogi attains Moksha, Vinirmukta Padam.
- He does not depend on anything external.
- Free from rebirth.

Verse 52:

When your intellect crosses the mire of delusion, you shall attain to indifference as to what has been heard and what is yet to be heard. [Chapter 2 – Verse 52]
What is the transformation? Which comes to a Karma Yogi?

- Karma Yogi crosses “Moha” – Delusion.
- Every human being is a mixture of matter and spirit, Atma and Anatma.
- Giving too much importance to matter – Anatma is Moha.
- When cloud of delusion goes, Viveka dawns.
- This results in giving up material pursuit for the sake Jnanam.
- Delusion means identification of body and mind as the self.

Verse 53:

When your intellect, though perplexed by what you have heard, shall stand immovable and steady in the Self, then you shall attain Self-Realisation. [Chapter 2 – Verse 53]

- When the intellect is steady and balanced, then one can attain self – realisation.
- Moksha means presence or absence of things does not disturb me.
- I can handle the pairs of opposite experiences in life, without loosing balance.
- When you abide in Viparya Rahita Jnanam, complete knowledge without confusion of the self, in the Atma, life becomes a sport you can enjoy.
I gain the knowledge of my higher nature which is ever free, independent and full, which does not depend on any external factors or support.

Spirituality is holding on to something that is permanent and reliable and well fixed like Atma.

Before entering the flow of life, hold on to Atma – Bagawan.

We should not loose our balance in life's situations of ups and downs by holding on to Atma.

Moksha does not mean rejecting the world, money, fame.

Karma Yoga Phalam topic concluded here which is Jnana Yoga and Moksha.

Self realisation is when the intellect stands steady in the self unmoved by the experiences in life.
Verse 54:

Arjuna uvāca
sthitaprajñasya kā bhāṣā
samādhisthayasya kēśava | sthitadhīḥ kim prabhaṣēta
kim āṣīta vrajēta kim || 2-54 ||

Arjuna Said: What, O Kesava, is the description of him who has steady wisdom and who is merged in the superconscious state? How does one of steady wisdom speak, how does he sit, how does he walk? [Chapter 2 – Verse 54]

Sthitaprajnasya Lakshanam:

- Indicators of self realised person. (Verse 54 – 72)

Arjuna asks:

- What is the description of a man of wisdom (Jnani), who is merged in the superconscious state?

How does he

- Speak
- Sit
- Walk
• A person who has gone through Karma Yoga, Jnana Yoga successfully is called a man of wisdom – “Sthitaprajna” or “Samadhisthaya”, one who abides in his higher nature called Atma.

• Krishna says, nothing to do with external personality but only with inner personality, change in mental make up, in your perspective, in the way you respond to life's challenges.

Verse 55 : Important Sloka

The Blessed Lord said : When a man completely casts off, O Partha, all the desires of the mind and is satisfied in the Self by the Self, then is he said to be one of steady wisdom. [Chapter 2 – Verse 55]

• What is the nature of a Sthithaprajna or Jnani?
• What is Samsara, what is human bondage, what is Moksha, inner freedom?
• According to Vedanta, we all have a real higher nature which is Poornatvam, Poorna Atma, full and complete, does not lack anything.

• Completeness is our Svaroopam but we are ignorant of our higher nature.

• All of us have Atma Poornatva Ajnanam, called ignorance.

• Ignorance leads to misconception, I am incomplete by myself.

• I want very many things in life and am missing many things, called Appornatva Branthi.

• I never accept as I am and want to improve my image by acquisitions, called Kama and Karma.

• Karma leads to Punya, Papam as I compromise with values.

• We accumulate Karma Phalam which cannot be exhausted in one Janma.

• One dies with unfulfilled desires and gets born again.

• Get Atma Jnanam, remove Avidya and become Stirapragya.

• When Apporna Nivritti takes place, Kama, Karma, Phalam goes.

• Karma account nill, Jnani does as Poorna Purusha.

• Jnani knows postponed fulfillment never comes.
- Thustah means contended, satisfied, fulfilled, not with the status in the society, but satisfied with ones Atma.
- Recognition of self worth is Moksha.
- Discovered ones higher nature Atmana, by oneself with the help of Atma Jnanam.
- Because of self satisfaction, other things become consequences.

Nourishment done by student by

- Indriya Nigraha
  - Sensory discipline
  - Sense organs – 5 doors for world to enter mind.
  - No knowledge can take place in a disturbed mind.
  - We have to censor what things are entering our mind.

  - When atmosphere is not healthy, withdraw the senses.
Verse 58 – 68:

What is Sthira Prajna Sadhanani?

- Process of assimilation, digestion, internalisation.

3 Disciplines

- Indriya Nigraha

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>To do</th>
<th>Not to do</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

- Scripture says, you are free only when you can do and have the freedom to say no.
- Mind gives a lot of arguments and you become an addict and a slave.
- Constantly assert you have the 2 fold freedom.
- Need to have mastery over 2 instruments – Sense Organs and mind to accomplish anything in life.
- World – consisting of Shabda, Sparsa, Rupa, Rasa, Gandha Prapanncha enters our mind through 5 gateways, doors.
After Entry

Nourish the mind
- By way of healthy thoughts, healthy knowledge

Can produce
- Kama, Krodha, Lobha, Madha, Matsarya.
- Toxic thoughts.

World Objects

Keep in the world as Padartha

World becomes vishayarthha after I develop Raaga Dvesha

Becomes Visharyartha When I develop

Raaga
- Attachment

Dvesha
- Aversion
Yatha Samharathe cha Ayam:

- Intelligent seeker restrains his sense organs whenever he feels that the object can enslave him by attachment or hatred, like a tortoise which withdraws the heads and the limbs.

Thasya Pragya Pratishtita:

- A person who withdraws his sense organs from addictions has undisturbed mind which can absorb the wisdom faster.

Verse 59:

The objects of the senses turn away from the abstinent man leaving the longing (behind); but his longing also leaves him upon seeing the Supreme. [Chapter 2 – Verse 59]

Mechanism of internal freedom explained here:

a) Vishaya Vinivartante:

- Freedom from sensory addiction is possible.
b) Niraaharahasya Dehinaha:

- When a seeker shifts or restrains his sense organs from the addicted objects.

b) Indriyani Pramathihī:
   - Sense organs are powerful and turbulent and can churn the mind like a Karandi / Mattuhu.

c) Manaha Prasabham haranthi:
   - Sense organs drag the mind to their fields.
   - What happiness is possible when I am a slave of my own senses.
   - Make sure you don’t allow the sense organs to control you.
Verse 61:

Having restrained them all, He should sit steadfast intent on Me; his wisdom is steady whose sense are under control. [Chapter 2 – Verse 62]

a) Thani Sarvani Samyamya :
   • Assert your freedom. Because,

b) Yasya Indriyam Vashe Varthantha :
   • Whoever is master of Sense organs will be master of mind also.
   • One who has censored sense organs will not allow entry of unwanted things from the world to enter his mind.

c) Thasya Pragya Pratishtita :
   • In an undisturbed mind, Atma Vidya gets converted to steady wisdom.
Verse 62:

When a man thinks of objects, attachment for them arises; from attachment desire is born; from desire arises anger... [Chapter 2 – Verse 62]

Mano Nigraha:

3rd Discipline (Thought Discipline) : Verse 62 - 66

World

\[ \text{Shabda, Sparsha, Rupa, Rasa, Gandha} \]

As Thoughts

Enters Mind

Likes and dislikes

Have freedom

To Nourish

To destroy

a) Sangha:

- Fancy – Weak and feeble, like plant or seedling.
b) Becomes Desire :
  • By repeated thinking – “Dhyayato” → Full grown tree.

c) We are forced to fulfill desire → Kama forces Karma.
  • Aquire object, visit places, strike a relationship.

d) Desire leads to addiction.
  • Krishna says nourish all healthy desires.

a) Dhyayato Vishayan Pumsah :
  • When the world of objects and people enter the mind, the mind develops a desire to dwell on them.

- Forgetfulness of Sastra.

But the self-controlled man moving among objects with his senses under restraint and free from both attraction and repulsion, attains peace. [Chapter 2 – Verse 64]
Who attains peace?

- A self controlled man, moving amongst objects, with senses under control, free from attraction and repulsion, attains peace.

a) Atmavaso Indriya:
- May your sense organs listen to your commandments.

b) Ragha Dvesha Viyukthe:
- Be alert and see that they do not develop likes and dislikes.

c) Vishayancharan:
- May you move about in the world.

d) Vidhe Atma:
- Self controlled, not Raaga Dvesha controlled.

e) Prasadam Athigachhati:
- Mind enjoys calmness and available for Vedantic meditation.

Verse 65:

In that peace all pains are destroyed; for, the intellect of the tranquil minded soon becomes steady. [Chapter 2 –Verse 65]
• In the peace, all pains are destroyed and the intellect becomes steady.
• When peace is attained, all miseries end.
• When the mind is calm, it is available for Vedantic meditation which I have received through Sravanam and Mananam.
• Here effort is required for Nididhyasanam to dwell on Vedantic teaching of Atma Svarupam.

a) Prasanna Chetasa :
• When a person enjoys a withdrawn quiet mind.

b) Buddhi Paryavathishtate :
• Buddhi here means Atma Jnanam, is soon established in the Self. Consciousness gets very well established and assimilated. Gita gets pushed to sub-conscious method and person becomes Stitaprajna.

c) Prasade Sarva Dukhanam :
• When mind is calm, all miseries end.

d) Hanir Asyopajayate :
• All pains subside.
• They become insignificant from Atma Angle.
• This is Jeevan Mukti.
Verse 66:

There is no knowledge (of the Self) to the unsteady; and to the unsteady no meditation; and to the unmeditative no peace; to the peaceless, how can there be happiness? [Chapter 2 – Verse 66]

Ladder of Happiness:

1. Steady Mind
2. Knowledge of Self
3. Meditation is possible
4. Has peace of Mind
5. Attains Happiness
a) Utkhaha:
   - Person with Indriya and Mano Nigraha.

b) Buddhir Nasti:
   - A person who doesn’t have discipline can’t get teaching. Sravanam does not take place properly.
   - No reception, no retention.
   - No meditation, can’t dwell on teaching.

c) Without Nididhyasanam, no Shanti, permanent peace and Jeevan Mukti.

d) There will be gap between “What I know” and what I am.

e) There is no happiness without peace of Mind.

Verse 67:

\[
\text{इन्द्रियाणां हि चरतां}
\text{यन्मनोदनुविधीयते।}
\text{तदस्य हरति प्रज्ञां}
\text{वायुर्नांवमिवाम्भसि।} \]

\text{yanmanō'nuvidhīyatē।}
\text{tadasya harati prajñāṁ}
\text{vāyurnāvam ivāmbhasi।} \]

For, the mind which follows in the wake of the wandering senses, carries away his discrimination, as the wind carries away a boat on the waters. [Chapter 2 – Verse 67]
• Be alert, let the sense organs not carry away the mind to sense objects with likes and dislikes.
• They hijack the knowledge of Atma from the intellect like a boat is carried away by the powerful wind.

<table>

<th>Mind</th>

• Two fold disciplines emphasised again.
• Knowledge I am the Chaitanya Atma is steady, if senses are controlled.
• Sthita Prajna Nididhyasanam topic ever.

Verse 68:

तस्माद्यस्य महाबाहो
निग्रहितानि सर्वशः ।
इन्द्रियाणिन्द्रियार्थेन्यः तस्य प्रज्ञा प्रतिष्ठिताः ॥ २-६८ ॥ tasmādyasya mahābāho

Therefore, O mighty-armed, his knowledge is steady whose senses are completely restrained from sense objects. [Chapter 2 – Verse 68]
Verse 69 – 72: Sthitaprajna Lakshanani (Indicators)

Verse 69:

That, which is night to all beings, in that the self-controlled man keeps awake; where all beings are awake, that is the night for the Sage (Muni) who sees. [Chapter 2 – Verse 69]

- Sage who lives in the self is day for him. He is unconscious of worldly Phenomena, which is like night for him.
- Ordinary person is unconscious of his real nature, which is night for him.
- Life of sense objects is day for him.

Diagram:

- Jnani
  - Day
    - Life with Self Knowledge
  - Night
    - Life of Sense objects
How will a wise man with knowledge of Atma interact with the world?

No change

World

Varied of experiences favourable, unfavourable will come.

Night

Life of no self knowledge

Ignorance

Prarabda karma

Day

Life of Sense Objects

Ajnani

- Internal transformation. Because of Jnana Kavacham.

Jnani Awake to Atma Tatvam:

- Gold inherent in the Ornaments.
- One water pervades all waves.
- One Atma pervades all creation.
Advaita Atma is the screen and all events light and Shades in motion.

Its very clear like day for Jnani.

Sarva Butanam :

- Ignorant are asleep with regard to Advaitic reality, not aware of life, therefore night for them.

sa shantimapiroiti na kamaakami || 2-70 ||

Apūryamāṇamacalapratishtham
samudramāpaha praviśanti yadvat| tadvatkāmā yaṁ praviśanti sarvē sa śāntimāpnoiti na kāmakāmi || 2-70 ||

Simple example here:

Ocean:

- Ever full, deep, steady, unaffected, Apooryamanam.
- Many rivers pure or dirty may join ocean but it is ever full, never affected, accepts all.

Jnani’s mind:

- Ever full.
- Arrival, departure of experience does not influence Jnani.
- It takes all sensory experiences, Shabda, rupa, Rasa, Gandha.
- Glorifying or insulting words or other experiences entering the mind through 5 gateways do not disturb him.

He (Man of Perfection) attains peace into whom all desires enter as waters enter the ocean, which filled from all sides, remains unmoved, but not the desirer of desires. [Chapter 2 – Verse 70]
• Ever remains Shantaha.
• Ajnanis mind not full and complete, gets tossed up and down depending on external factors.
• This is difference between Sthita Prajna and Prajna.

Verse 71:

verse

That man attains peace who, abandoning all desires, moves about without longing, without the sense of ‘I-ness’ and my-ness’. [Chapter 2 – Verse 71]

• The man attains peace, who abandoning all desires moves about without longing, without sense of mine and without egoism.

   • No ownership with anything in creation, including body and mind.

e) Nirmamatvam:
   • Everything belongs to Lord.
   • Body is gift from the Lord because of Prarabda Karma. I have to return it without I and My notion.

f) Sa Shantim Adigachhati:
   • Jnani gains peace of mind. Others will have a heavy mind with constant insecurity, and anxiety.

Verse 72:

एषा ब्राह्मी स्थिति: पार्थ

ēśā brāhmī sthitiḥ pārtha
naināṁ prāpya vimuhyati |

This is the Brahmika state, O son of Prtha. Attaining this, none is deluded. Being established therein, even at the end of life, one attains to oneness with Brahman. [Chapter 2 – Verse 72]
• This is the eternal state, attaining this none is deluded, and one attains oneness with Brahman.
• State of wisdom – known as Brahmisthithi, Sthithaprajna, Jeevan Mukti.
• Always aware of Atma in transactions.
• Roles I play are Vesham, temporary.
• My permanent role is Aham Brahma Asmi.
• No more conflicts in life, no delusion (Yena Prapya Na Vimuhyati).
• Delusion is due to attachment, attachment is due to forgetfulness of higher nature.
• Attains oneness with Brahman after death – Videha Mukti.
• He is free from Samsara, cycle of Birth and Death.

Fourth Topic: Verse 54 - 72

Sthitha Prajna (Verse 54 – 72)

Sadhanas

Disciplines

- Sravanam, Mananam.
- Indriya Nigraha.
- Mano Nigraha.
- Nidhidhyasanam.

Lakshana

Natural Traits

Indriya Nigraha

- Sense control, regulation.
- Do not dump everything to your mind by exposing your sense organs to all kinds of things.
- Censor the world.
- Otherwise it will create emotional disturbances.

Mano Nigraha

- Censure thoughts before they become powerful.
- Feeble in initial stage.
- You have no control over entry of thought.
- I have the control to decide whether it should be allowed to continue and become stronger or not.
- I have total power over 1st thought and zero power when it gets converted into action.
Nididhyasanam:

• Dwell on teaching through out life.
• Then knowledge gets well established – Prajna becomes Sthithaprajna.
• Under all circumstances (favourable and unfavourable), Sthithaprajna is able to keep mental balance.

Example:

• Like Ocean everfull and complete.
