Karma Yoga

R
Reduction of Adharmic actions

I
Increase Dharmic actions

D
Dedicate all actions

E
Experience every situation as Ishvara Prasada
- I am not the Body, Mind, Sense organs.
- They are media through which I the Jeeva operate.
- I am conscious principle intrinsically.
- I am the non-arriving, non-departing, ever present, everywhere present Atma.

- I don’t have Punya Papam or Phalam, no Sanchita, Agami, Prarabdam, no Jatakam.
- I am ever free.
- Real Pursuit should be to claim Atma Svarupam.
- When I claim Atma, I come to know it is the only source of Ananda.

[Chapter 5 – Verse 8]

Speaking, letting go, seizing, opening and closing the eyes – convinced that the senses move among the sense objects. [Chapter 5 – Verse 9]

- Even while seeing, hearing, smelling, eating, moving, reclining, breathing, talking, evacuating, opening the eye, closing the eye, the knower of truth knows – “I do not do anything at all” bearing in mind the sense organs remain in sense objects.
• All activities are mere role play of Ahamkara “I”.
• It does not belong to real I, Sakshi.
• Ahamkara will always be incomplete, imperfect, will have incomplete, imperfect, unfinished duties.

2 Intrinsic problems of Ahamkara
